

DEFIBRILLATOR

Having contacted Dorset Highways, Magna Housing and Bt, they all deny ownership of the proposed site.

As a result, I have gone back to Dorset Council Highways who logically must own the site. I need to get permission for using this site before the end of the month as the funding from the British Heart Foundation runs out at the end of November although will be available again next year at some stage.